

THE CAMDEN CHRONICLE.

VOL. XXXIII. NO. 12.

CAMDEN, TENNESSEE.

SEPTEMBER 21, 1906.

WIRE IT TO ALL YOUR FRIENDS!

The Big Closing Out Sale is Camden's Greatest Attraction

They are Rallying around the store where things are done. They go to and fro like ants around their hill.

They know we have got the best lot of Merchandise that has ever been brought to Camden, and that we want to close out, and are selling 'em cheap!

Some say that it is most too early to buy Fall and Winter Goods, but they are coming from twenty-five and thirty miles away and buying while they can get the pick of the stock.

Its the Harvest of Your Lives!

You get Best Machine Thread (any numbers and colors) Silk and 400-yard Spool Cotton at 45 cents per dozen.

Extra heavy yard-wide Brown Sheetting (three yards to the pound) at 6 cents per yard.

Men's Heavy Fleeced-lined Underwear goes at 35 cents.

Men's Long Overcoats (just arrived—worth $10.00) for only $5.00.

Men's Heavy Rain Proof Duck Coats, regular price, $1.50; closing out price, $1.00.

Dress Goods never were so cheap! Black Lustre, 52 inches wide—actually worth 75 cents—for only 42½ cents per yard.

Its a shame to sacrifice Bran New Goods in such a way, but we can't help it. We've got 'em, and we have got to turn 'em loose!

Its close out with us; you get the benefit!

Never again will there be such an opportunity as this sale offers!

Hope Bleaching goes at 7 cents a yard.

You will find prices that "astound the natives."

It Beats the World, Such Prices!

Shoes never were so cheap. Selz Royal Blue $3.50 Shoes for men and women, go at $2.98.

You get Men's Suits, worth $10.00, for $5.50. $20.00 Suits go at $15.75. Everything else in the same manner.

Every man, woman, and child should lay in a supply for the future.

We want you to come in and inspect the "whole shooting match!"

The goods and prices speak for themselves.

Its facts in cold print—we are quitting.

We urge those who want to save money to come to the store where things are done before making a single purchase. No matter what our would-be competitors say, or prices they make, we have Bran New Goods to be closed out cheap! This is no money-making sale. Everything is marked down, and it is to your interest to place your hard-earned dollars where they will go the farthest.

Remember, we have a house full of Bran New Goods to be sold at a BIG SACRIFICE. Nothing like it has ever been seen in this country. Come early and get the pick of the stock.

Very Respectfully,

BATEMAN & FINLEY..

THE STATE FAIR.

The management of the Tennessee State Fair, which will begin October 8, at Nashville, and continue for one week, has arranged for several special days and others are to be added.

On Monday, which has been designated as Childrens' Day, all children under fifteen years of age will be given free admission. The pupils of the public schools and orphan asylums have been extended a special invitation to attend, and a very pleasing program will be presented in honor of the occasion.

The day will be especially attractive, because during the afternoon Dan Patch and Cresceus, the former the pacing and the latter the trotting champion of the world, will go against their own records on Cumberland Park track, one of the best in the land. Dan Patch recently lowered his record from 1.55½ to 1.55, and may reduce it still lower at the State Fair.

Tuesday will be Fraternal Day, when members of all benevolent orders in Tennessee are expected to be in attendance. Wednesday will be Confederate Day, at which time "the boys in gray" will be the guests of the association.

Thursday will be Home-seekers' Day, and Friday County Fair Day when the representatives of the county fairs in Tennessee will be entertained in appreciation of the aid given the State Fair. Saturday, College Day, will mark the close of the Fair, thousands of the students of the various educational institutions assembling to enjoy the innumerable attractions of the great exposition.

Arrangements are being made for the coming of the Twelfth Regiment, United States Army, about six hundred strong, now stationed at Chickamauga Park. The members of this famous regiment are thoroughly proficient in the fancy drills, and their appearance will add greatly to the interesting program. The music to be rendered by Bellstedt and his band, the Twelfth Regiment Band and other musical organizations, will excel any ever heard at a similar attraction. Professor Bellstedt has arranged an unusually attractive program for each day, having special reference to the special days.

Entries for the different departments are coming in rapidly, and all indications point to full exhibits. The grounds and buildings at Cumberland Park are being put in excellent condition, the great agricultural building has just been completed, and the immense cattle and horse barns are ready for the reception of stock.

Bedford, Giles, Maury, Sumner and Wilson counties have entered for the $1,000 premium offered for the best county exhibit, and other counties are arranging to follow their example.

MANLY'S CHAPEL.

The following is taken from the Paris Post-Intelligencer:

As usual there was a large crowd attended the Manly's Chapel camp meeting Sunday. The reputation of this famous and ancient place of worship and the well-known hospitality of the people always secures a good attendance.

The history of the place of worship is as old or older than the settlement of Henry County and the organization of the city of Paris. The settlement of the county began in 1819. The organization of Paris was in 1823, while the establishment of this church, the first in West Tennessee, was by Rev. John Manly in 1822.

His co-workers were Rev. Benjamin Peeples, Richard and Hamlin Manly, William and Abraham Walters, T. F. Lilly, Henry Wall, Johanan Smith, James R. and John Randle, Robert Smith, Joel, J. L. and W. T. Hagler, the Lowry's, the Moody's and others.

All of them are dead except Rev. John Randle, who still lingers with us, though in his 96th year.

There have been held at this famous camp ground eighty-four camp meetings, or an average of one each year since its organization. Rev. Benjamin Peeples was its first pastor, being the first minister sent into West Tennessee by the Tennessee Conference.

He was a man of great native intellect and of varied talent. He was not only an able, eloquent and a successful minister, but he was successful as a farmer and physician. He was for many years a member of the county court, and was one of the ablest judges that ever presided over it.

His wife was an able and active co-worker, and they reared, educated and sent out as ministers five sons, viz: William, Benjamin F., John R., Thomas and Samuel. They also reared Richard, Thomas and John Randle, three brothers of Mrs. Peeples, and two orphan boys, Arthur Davis and John Steele, and sent them all out as ministers and there was not an inferior one among them. In all, ten ministers from one household, and every one of them above the average.

Under the pastorate of Dr. Peeples this church began a long and useful career. It is estimated that 300 of its 4,000 converts entered the ministry.

BEAUTIFUL WOMEN.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten.

Mrs. William M. Stroud, Midlothian, Tex., writes May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria." Sold by Fry Drug Co.

BE SURE TO LOOK US UP.

THE CHRONICLE office is located in the Fry building upstairs over the store of Joe J. Weatherly.

A GOOD LAW.

The law giving grand juries inquisitorial power over public drunkenness is one of the best laws of the kind ever placed upon the statute books of Tennessee, says the Paris Press-Parisian.

Public drunkenness is a public nuisance and a shame. The punishment for such an outrage can hardly be too severe.

The law is now so that grand juries may get at the offenders. Lets have the penalty for such conduct so severe that no man will dare appear in public with tainted breath, staggering, slobbering, cursing, blackguarding, puking, or foaming at the mouth like a brute. If one is a slave to drink, let him drink at home.

If he has no more self-respect than to go in public looking more like a devil than a man, let him suffer the penalty of the law.

If a man drinks that is altogether his own lookout, but the public has a right and should exercise it to see that he doesn't interfere with it in his beastly indulgence.
